

All the ideas that's fit to patent.®

FERNANDEZ
& ASSOCIATES, LLP

NEWSLETTER

SPRING-2019

WELCOME INTERNS

Brian J. Brewer – Brian is a recent graduate from Michigan State University College of Law with an undergraduate background in Chemistry where he conducted a various series of research. In Law School, Brian focused on Intellectual Property and was awarded the Jurisprudence Achievement Award for Trademark and Unfair Competition Law. Brian is also an active participant in the Patent Law Moot Court Team.

Riley Stout – Riley is a current 3L at Santa Clara University College of Law. Riley has earned an undergraduate degree in electrical engineering and has had extensive engineering intern experience in device disclosure documentation and as a test engineer.

Francesca Tizon– Francesca is a 1L at Northwestern Pritzker Law School with an undergraduate degree in Molecular and Cell Biology and Physiology from UC Berkeley. Her experience includes working as a medical assistant and shadower at various Medical centers and research experience in breast cancer pathways at UC Berkeley.

Sri Srinivasan – Sri earned an undergraduate degree in Cell Biology from UC Davis and continued to complete extensive coursework in the advanced biosciences program at UC Berkeley Extension. She has research experience in Cancer Biology from UCSF, Alzheimer's Biology from Touro University, and HIV-related Non-Profit work in public health.

Cameron Clark– Cameron is pursuing a B.S. in Chemical Engineering and a minor in Computer Engineering at University of Illinois Urbana Champaign. Cameron has extensive experience as a research assistant at the Center for Plasma-Material Interactions and as a Marketing and Operations Intern at Retirement Plan Solutions.

Maulik Raval – Maulik is a 3L at the University Of Southern California Gould School Of Law. Before beginning law school, Maulik earned a Bachelor of Science in Chemistry from Gujarat University, a post Graduate Diploma in Textile Chemistry from and MS University, and a Bachelor of Law from Gujarat University. Maulik's work experience consists of being a chemist, QA Officer, and Executive at Cadila Healthcare Limited.

Nick Gorman –Nick is a current undergraduate at the University of Iowa and is pursuing a Bachelor of Sciences in Electrical Engineering, Minor in Math, and a Minor in Physics. Nick has had work implementing engineering products via his engineering internship at Greater Machining and Manufacturing.

All the ideas that's fit to patent. ®

FERNANDEZ
& ASSOCIATES, LLP

Silun Gu– Silun is an undergraduate at University of California San Diego double majoring in Economics and Nano-engineering. Silun has research experience in Platelet cell biology and NFκB Regulation. Silun also volunteers as a Khan Academy translator, at the Charity foundation of Zhejiang, and Handson San Diego.

Savannah Ardrey– Savannah is a current undergraduate at Stanford University where she is involved in Varsity Lightweight Rowing Team, Stanford Women in Engineering, and Stanford Food Recovery Network. She has had extensive volunteering experience at Women in Agile, Project Management Institute, Ronald McDonald House, and the Australian Cervical Cancer Foundation.